IN A NUTSHELL:

North Iowa welcomes its border rival in hopes of keeping pace in the Central Division standings.

ALL-TIME SERIES:

Tied, 4-3-1 (both teams have lost at home once in a shootout).

LAST TIME OUT:

North Iowa played each of its three games last weekend to a 4-2 final score, dropping the last of those games to the Aberdeen Wings on Saturday night. After getting off to a hot start in Friday's game with two goals in the opening 4:18, the Bulls needed seven-and-a-half minutes before Michael Mesic was able to sneak a power play goal from the right wing past goaltender Greg Orosz, and North Iowa took the 1-0 lead to the locker room. Two quick strikes – one from Seamus Campbell at 1:21 of the second period and one from Jacob Bosse at 3:51 – would put the Wings in the driver's seat after two periods. The Bulls tied things back up at the 38-second mark of the third period, when Mesic snapped a second-swing wrist shot past Orosz after fanning on his first attempt. Will Gilson scored at 5:58 of the third period to take the lead back for good, and a Bauer Barry faceoff to the right of Hunter Garvey ended up in the hands of Patrick O'Connell, whose toss toward the net ended up in the back of the cage for a 4-2 score. Garvey made 41 saves in taking the loss, while Orosz made 25 saves for his fifth victory of the year. The Bulls' penalty kill was perfect again, stopping all three Aberdeen chances and going 7-for-7 for the weekend.

TONIGHT'S PROMOTIONS:

The Bulls are heating up a cold River City with their "Friday Night Fever" promotion, with a $45 ticket package featuring two game tickets and 10 beer tickets. All beers have been marked down to $3, and the team's "Drink From a New Cup" shirts will sell for the temperature as of 6:30 p.m. as the doors open (with a minimum of $8 for an 8° degree temperature or below).

NO PLACE LIKE HOME:

North Iowa will have a new face on the roster at the NAHL's Top Prospects event on Monday and Tuesday – Byron Hartley was chosen to replace an injured Carter Rapalje on the Central Division team, while the addition of a Selects team and the National Team Development Program's U17 team led to Michael Mesic's move to the new Selects roster. Monday's first two games will pit those two new additions against each other at 12:30 p.m., while the Central and Midwest Divisions face off at 3 p.m. The Selects open Tuesday morning with an 8 a.m. start against the Midwest Division, and the Central Division all-stars face the South Division team in the next game at 10:30 a.m.

POWERING UP:

Power play numbers are climbing across the league, and that includes North Iowa – though the Danbury Jr. Hat Tricks remain the only team behind the Bulls in the league's power play rankings, North Iowa has picked up goals on the man-advantage in three of their last four games. The Bulls are 3-for-their-last-14 on the power play, a mark that would put them among the league's 10 best. The Bruins' penalty kill remains the last frontier for the Bulls' power play to conquer, with Austin keeping its neighbor to the south off the board in each of the Bulls' 26 power play chances so far this season.

THE IRON HORSE:

North Iowa has turned to an "old reliable" in net this season to gather up minutes and keep the puck out of the net – Hunter Garvey picked up decisions in all three games last weekend, posting 105 saves over three nights. Garvey has been a steadfast standby in the Bulls' net this season, posting his first decision as a North Iowa Bull in the team's October 1 shootout loss to the Bruins – since then, he has come off the ice with 29 of his team's 32 decisions, including a pair in relief against Aberdeen. Garvey won four games last season for the Amarillo Bulls, making the move to North Iowa with the team.

BIG JACK:

One week after his former North Iowa Bulls and Mason City Toros linemate Carter Newpower picked up his 100th career junior point, a current North Iowa Bull is on the verge as well. Jack Champion is just three points away from the century mark, earning his first North American Hockey League goal in last Thursday's loss to the St. Cloud Norsemen. Despite not appearing in a Toros game since December 22 at the NA3HL Showcase, Champion is still a point ahead of Sota Isogai for the second-leading scoring mark on Mason City's roster.
